

Guidelines for the Completion of an Application for Special Consideration

The University's assessment practices are designed to ensure that conditions are fair to all students, as consistent as possible and that individual students are not disadvantaged by adverse personal circumstances beyond their control or by the activities of other students.

Generally, serious illness or misadventure will be taken into account when considering a student's academic performance in a course or Units of Study. There is, however, a clear distinction between longstanding illness or difficulties which prevent students from attending classes or completing required work or which seriously interfere with their capacity to study for long periods, and short-term serious illness or misadventure that may prevent a well-prepared student from sitting for an examination or completing a particular assignment.

The information you supply on this application is needed by the University so that it can assess your application for Special Consideration. This document, and any associated records, will be retained by the Faculty of Science, where the records will only be available to staff who need access in order to carry out their duties. All records will be destroyed in a secure manner one year after the completion of the Unit of Study for which consideration was sought. Any request to access and/or correct the information should be addressed to the Projects and Services Officer at the Faculty of Science office.

Please note that applications must be received within seven (7) calendar days from the end of the period for which consideration is sought (ie from the assignment due date or date of examination).

To apply for Special Consideration:

The student must:

1. Obtain and complete a Special Consideration Application pack from the Faculty Administration Office or from the Faculty website.
2. Complete the Special Consideration form and other forms included in this pack
 - For consideration due to serious illness, the student must have a registered medical practitioner or counsellor complete the Professional Practitioners Certificate
 - For consideration due to misadventure, the student must attach the appropriate documentation (police reports, counselling service statements etc)
3. Lodge the original paperwork with the relevant Faculty for the unit of study, with one copy for each piece of assessment for which consideration is being sought, all of which will be stamped by Faculty staff.
 - If students desire a copy of their application, they must provide an additional copy which will be stamped at the Faculty Office.
4. Students will be notified of the academic judgement concerning their application for Special Consideration via an e-mail to their University e-mail account.

Part 5 – Special Consideration Due to Serious Illness and Misadventure.

7. Documentation

- (1) Professional Practitioner Certificate is supplied with the special consideration form and should be completed by a registered medical practitioner, or counsellor for a student whose work during a teaching period or whose performance in an assessment task, including examinations, has been affected by illness or misadventure. Certificates signed by family members are not acceptable.

The Professional Practitioner Certificate includes;

- (a) dates of consultation;
- (b) an evaluation by the practitioner, psychologist etc. as to the severity, duration and effect on the student's ability to attend classes, learn or complete assessment requirements;
- (c) a description of the nature and seriousness of the student's problems, within the limits of confidentiality, so that an academic assessment can be made of the possible effects of the illness or accident on the student's performance;
- (d) any other relevant information relating to the student's illness, trauma etc.;
- (e) any other documentation that may be relevant; and
- (f) the practitioner authorises the University to contact them to confirm the authenticity of the certificate.
